National Partnership for Action The NPA was established to mobilize a nationwide comprehensive, community-driven, partnership-based, and sustained approach to combating health disparities and to moving the nation toward achieving health equity. The activities of the NPA aim to build capacity across sectors for action on health disparities at all levels of society, promote and support systems change, empower individuals to improve their health, create a network of leaders and practitioners working toward the common goal of a nation without disparities, and promote a social determinants of health (SDoH) approach for understanding the issues and defining the solutions. https://www.minorityhealth.hhs.gov/npa/Default.aspx The NPA Toolkit for Community Action To support community efforts in the goal of ending health disparities and promoting health equity, OMH has released the new NPA Toolkit for Community Action. Through this toolkit, community members will have the information and resources they need to help engage fellow citizens and local media as they spread the word about health disparities and educate others about the impact disparities have in the lives of individuals and the greater impact on society. https://www.minorityhealth.hhs.gov/npa/files/Plans/Toolkit/NPA_Toolkit_092617.pdf	1-800-444-6472
