TRAINUP DAY

ENCOURAGING CAREER DEVELOPMENT. EMPOWERING EMPLOYEES.

As the fourth component of NJPCA's yearlong workforce initiative to promote recruitment, retention, and development at Federally Qualified Health Centers, Centers throughout the state recognized TrainUp Day on October 10, 2018. TrainUp Day highlighted the success and internal promotion of Community Health Center employees.

NJPCA TrainUp Day featured the achievements of team members who have grown professionally within their organizations. Health Centers distributed various peer success stories during trainings and events, inspiring team members to achieve their goals. Community Health Center CEOs also shared their personal career journeys with their teams.

Many Health Center employees began their career as entry-level employees and moved up the professional ladder after receiving the necessary training and education. As part of TrainUp Day, Health Centers shared descriptions of various departments and open positions to showcase the many opportunities that are available to employees.

TRAIN UP DAY

October 10, 2018 is the day FQHCs across the State learn about career opportunities at their Health Centers.

OHI held multiple TrainUp Day events at each of their sites. During the events, representatives from Human Resources, Marketing, and Administration provided information on how employees can develop their career. OHI leaders also shared videos of inspiring peer success stories from fellow colleagues.

A video interview featuring Vice President of Compliance and Human Resources, Dan Foglia was shared. Dan began at OHI as a security officer and worked his way up the professional ladder to his current role of Vice President of Compliance and Human Resources. While working at OHI, Dan received his MBA and served in the military for seven years in the Army Reserve and National Guard. Dan is also currently pursuing a fellowship with the American Colleges of Healthcare Executives.

A second video was provided for TrainUp Day that highlighted the peer success story of Keila Alvarado who began at OHI as a Certified Medical Assistant and is now the Regional Practice Director.

- Learn information about job openings and other opportunities for growth.
- Be inspired by peer success stories and how they moved up the career ladder.
- Hear about the qualities that make your colleagues excel.

There are No Glass Ceilings at FQHCs!

“I learned to never be complacent...”

“For the past ten years, I have had the opportunity to grow professionally at OHI. Along the way, I learned to never be complacent because there are always opportunities to further your career.

For example, I started at the Health Center as a security guard and moved into my current role as Vice President of Compliance and Human Resources. Before seeking advancement, it is important to show management that you can handle the work first. If you prove you can handle the position- no matter the task- there will be more opportunities available to you.”

Eric B. Chandler Health Center

Marissa Griffin started as a medical technician. During this time, she achieved her LPN degree. Now she is working on her RN degree. Another team member, Lucia Colon received her Health Services Management degree, while working as the Team Supervisor for the Registration Department. Michelle Hawkins-Nunn started as an Administrative Coordinator and is now a Nurse. Other team members who were highlighted are pursuing degrees at Rutgers University.

Eric B. Chandler Health Center Executive Director, Sandra Hill distributed an e-mail to Health Center team members for TrainUp Day. The e-mail encouraged Health Center staff to grow professionally and seek opportunities. The e-mail included pictures of team members who have grown in their role at Eric B. Chandler.

FROM THAT MOMENT I WAS MOVED TO START A CAREER HERE. I GET EMOTIONAL TO THIS DAY WHEN I THINK ABOUT THE IMPACT WE MAKE. I AM HONORED TO BE A PART OF THE MISSION TO CHANGE LIVES, AND THE NEED IS GREAT.

North Hudson Community Action Corporation

North Hudson Community Action Corporation (NHCAC) developed a newsletter to highlight Health Center employees, Anna Kleczek and Damaris Reynoso (pictured on the middle left and middle right). Anna began working for NHCAC in 2008 as a Certified Medical Assistant in Hackensack and is now a Licensed Practical Nurse. Damaris first started as a secretary in the Maintenance Department and is now a Registered Nurse. These peer success stories inspired team members to grow in their role and showed that team members at any level can move up the professional ladder. NHCAC also shared information regarding TrainUp Day in their first edition of an e-newsletter called the Monthly Scoop.

“From housekeeping to RN. It wasn’t easy, but it was worth the effort.”

Train Up Day Newsletter (October 10, 2018)

At NHCAC we are surrounded by a truly dedicated team who worked hard to get to where they are today. As part of Train Up Day, we are recognizing staff who have grown with NHCAC. We want you to hear how your peers have moved up the ladder and how you can too. Today we celebrate Damaris Reynoso, RN and Anna Kleczek, LPN.

Did you know Jersey City’s RN, Damaris Reynoso was hired as the secretary in North Hudson Community Action’s maintenance department in West New York, but she agreed to fill in when one of the housekeepers needed a day off? Her task as a housekeeper was to clean the bathrooms. In the clinical area she noticed nurses working with patients and saw how pleased patients were with the services they received. She talked with the nurses and learned they also found their assignments very satisfying. So she determined to become a nurse. It wasn’t easy, she recalled. She worked very hard during the day, went home and took care of her three kids, and studied on line after they were asleep, from 9 pm till dawn sometimes. But it was worth every effort, she said. She’s very proud of being a part of North Hudson and she modestly admits she’s glad North Hudson is also very proud of her. In 2018 Ms. Reynoso graduated from the nursing program and is now the Women’s Services Registered Nurse at our Jersey City Health Center!

Did you know, LPN, Anna Kleczek began working for NHCAC in 2008 as a Certified Medical Assistant in Hackensack? That was only the first step in her life plan. She enjoyed being a CMA but as a single mother, she also needed to devote a great deal of time to her family. By 2015 she felt she could devote more time to herself and her plan. She switched duties from CMA to Administrative Assistant and enrolled in the nursing program at Eastwick College. It was difficult, she admitted, but she worked very hard, reminding herself how much she truly loved patient care and how much she wanted to provide that care from another level. In 2018 she graduated and now cares for patients as an LPN. She loves her new role and is glad she can serve as a role model for others. “You can do it if you really want to,” she says.

When you see them in the hall today, congratulate them for their hard work.

As part of a statewide campaign at FQHCs throughout New Jersey, Train Up Day will prove that there are no glass ceilings at FQHCs!

Keep up the great work!

CompleteCare Health Network

“I started as an outreach worker, sharing information about CompleteCare with those who needed us. I quickly fell in love with this work. When I saw the difference I could make in people’s lives, I knew I would be here for a long time. As I gained more experience I started doing more within the organization. I soon came to oversee outreach and government relations. Then I moved on to facilities and from there I was named the President and CEO of the organization. I always tell our staff to work hard, stay engaged and you’ll move up. I am a great example of what is possible.”

J. CURTIS EDWARDS

HEALTH NETWORK

CompleteCare Health Network has many real-life examples of employees who have moved up the ladder. J. Curtis Edwards started at the organization as an outreach worker. He now runs one of the largest FQHCs in the state of New Jersey, which operates 19 Health Centers in Cumberland, Gloucester, and Cape May Counties and serves over 60,000 patients annually.

DID YOU KNOW...

#FQHCgrown #TrainUpDay

That our very own Luzaida started at CAMcare as a Receptionist and is now the Vice President of Administrative Services?

"I started out as a receptionist and was promoted overtime to roles with increasing responsibilities, providing support to leadership executives. After 26 years of dedicated service, I became Vice President of Administrative Services. It is a good feeling when hard work is rewarded. I can honestly say, I have been preparing for this role ever since I got here."

LUZAIDA PAGAN

VICE PRESIDENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES AT CAMCARE HEALTH CORPORATION

CAMcare Health Corporation Vice President/Chief Human Resources Officer, Linda M. Gray, MBA, provided useful TrainUp Day resources at CAMcare's information table for employees. Additionally, several peer success stories were highlighted to encourage team members that it is possible move up the professional ladder at CAMcare. Success story flyers were distributed to inspire other employees.

Project H.O.P.E., Inc.

Project H.O.P.E. celebrated and encouraged career and workforce development opportunities within the Health Center for TrainUp Day. During the event, Project H.O.P.E.'s leaders assembled with staff to share open job positions. Health Center leaders also discussed success stories of employees who have grown in the organization and moved up into new positions.

The story of Project H.O.P.E. team member, Yahaira Mercado was highlighted. Yahaira began her career at Project H.O.P.E. as a Call Center Clerk. While employed with Project H.O.P.E., Yahaira furthered her education and attended courses in billing. When a position in the billing department opened, Yahaira was hired as a Medical Billing Specialist.

"I feel very proud..."

"The advancement opportunities I have received at Project H.O.P.E. have not only allowed me to gain new skills, but have also made me feel more productive and effective within the Health Center. My education in Billing and Coding has also been an advantage in my favor. I feel very proud of all that I have accomplished and I am very grateful for my experience working at a Federally Qualified Health Center."

Newark Community Health Centers, Inc.

“You should love what you do and do what you love...”

NCHC also shared the peer success story of Tracey Morman to highlight that there are no glass ceilings at FQHCs. Additionally, resources and materials were distributed to staff along with several giveaways to further encourage participation in TrainUp Day. TrainUp Day materials were available at various NCHC's site break rooms.

“All I can truly say is you should love what you do and do what you love. There is a certain level of passion you have to have for the work that you do in order to be successful. I choose to (in this role and others) focus on the work and not be distracted. More importantly, carrying out your duties in a respectful, and ethical manner (no matter how difficult the task may be), I believe, is what caused the leadership at Newark Community Health Centers to take notice. I was offered a growth opportunity unexpectedly and unsolicited and I’m grateful.”

TRACEY MORMAN

NEWARK COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS, INC.

Alliance Community Health Center

Alliance Community Health Center team members were featured on TrainUp Day to promote professional growth. The following peer success stories were shared:

Maria Figuereo- HIM/ Patient Services

Maria began her journey at Alliance as a Medical Records Clerk fifteen years ago. She was then promoted to Electronic Medical Records Supervisor. Maria successfully managed the transition of moving the organization from paper health records to electronic health records. After the transition, Maria now works in Health Information Management.

Limary Echevarria- Lead Medical Assistant

Limary started as a Medical Assistant at Alliance. Her experience and support were some key factors that landed her a new position as the Lead Medical Assistant. In her new position, she is able to train Medical Assistants to provide the care and support that patients and providers need.

Paola Segobia- Lead Financial Services Representative

Paola joined Alliance as a Medical Assistant Intern and then she transitioned from an intern to a Patient Services Representative. Through hard work and dedication, Paola was promoted to Lead Financial Services Representative.

Marleni Zapata- Facilities Manager

Marleni started as a Facilities worker and then she was promoted to Facilities Manager. In this role, she provides guidance and support to her team.

Teresa Oliveira- Night Shift Supervisor

Teresa joined Alliance as a facilities worker, supporting the night shift. She was promoted to Night Shift Supervisor and supports the facilities team.

Margarita Cruz- Behavioral Health Counselor

Margarita joined Alliance as a Family Success Intern and then became part of the team as a Family Development Specialist. After joining the Community Services Department as a Patient Care Advocate, she was promoted to Behavioral Health Counselor. In her new role, Margarita regularly visits schools and provides counseling to students, as well as their parents. She also provides counseling to patients and families at Alliance.

Vanessia Davis- Patient Services Manager

Vanessia joined Alliance as a Patient Services Representative. In this role, she was trained to work in a variety of departments and provide support to her colleagues. Vanessia was promoted to Patient Services Manager. As a manager, Vanessia administers training and assists team members across the organization.

Zufall Health Center showcased the career paths of various clinical staff who have expanded their opportunities through hard work and dedication. A press release was also shared on Zufall's website.

TrainUp Day: A statewide campaign to promote job growth at FQHCs.

Did you know that one of Zufall's newly hired doctors, Dr. Thomas, started out as an AmeriCorps member? Some Zufall case managers and patient navigators began as Medical Assistants or Patient Representatives. At Zufall Health, we are surrounded by a truly dedicated team who worked hard to get to where they are today. We are committed to promoting career opportunities for you to grow and develop. As part of Train Up Day, a statewide campaign at FQHCs throughout New Jersey, we want you to hear how your peers have moved up the ladder and how you can too.

Katheryn Grajales

Katheryn Grajales came to Zufall in 2012 as a Patient Representative in our Dover office. She had just entered Physician Assistant's (PA) school at Seton Hall and wanted to gain experience in the medical field while she attended school. Initially she had been told that Zufall did not hire PAs, but during her second year of employment, Zufall hired its first PA, Michael Murphy. During her studies, Katheryn spent a month rotation with PA Murphy and Dr. Douglas Bishop during which she was able to gain valuable experience in Zufall clinical processes. Soon after graduating school, a PA position opened up in the Morristown office and Katheryn was hired for the position in December 2015. The transition from Patient Representative to PA was an easy one thanks to the support of her fellow providers and other staff. Katheryn said, "When I first transitioned to the PA position, the staff was so helpful in training me and making me feel comfortable. They gave me a lot of confidence in my new position."

Julia Cruz

In 2013, Julia Cruz began working for Zufall as a Dental Assistant (DA) in Dover. Julia is by nature a motivated person who always seeks ways in which to further her education. Soon after she began working for Zufall, she completed an X-ray License, a Certified Dental Assistant License and a Registered Dental Assistant License. In 2016, Julia was asked to fill in at the Flemington Healthy Smile Center after two Dental Assistant positions were vacated. In Flemington, aside from her normal DA duties, she was given increasingly challenging projects. Despite her long commute from Wharton, she found herself enjoying her work there. During her time in Flemington, the Site Manager position opened up. She wasn't sure if she should apply, but her supervisor Gloria gave her the encouragement she needed. She has been happily in the position for two years now and true to her nature, she is currently working towards obtaining another license as a Community Dental Health Coordinator.

Katheryn and Julia are just two of the examples of many staff who have moved up within Zufall Health. Talk to your colleagues in positions you aspire to reach and find out how they got there.

Metropolitan Family Health Network

Metropolitan Family Health Network (MFHN) hosted two TrainUp Day sessions to encourage career development and workforce opportunities within their Community Health Center. During the TrainUp Day sessions, President and CEO, Joan Dublin provided employees insight on her own career journey of moving up the professional ladder. Hudson County Community College also discussed affordable education as well as certification opportunities. In addition, team members played a game called "Humble Beginnings" to match Health Center leaders with their entry level position before moving up in their career.

“When I was looking for jobs, I always wanted to work at a Federally Qualified Health Center to educate the community; especially to ensure that the immigrant population has access to quality healthcare. Many people simply do not get the health care they need for economic reasons, but Community Health Centers provide a place where they can go...After I gained experience as a clerk, my employer quickly recognized my qualifications and promoted me to an open LPN position. I appreciate that Metropolitan Family Health Network is very supportive of my development. When I am ready to take the next step to return to school to become an RN, I know that they will accommodate my schedule.”

CHARLENE RIVERO

LPN AT METROPOLITAN FAMILY HEALTH NETWORK

MFHN also highlighted Charlene Rivero who started at the Health Center as a clerk and was promoted to a LPN position within three months.

“I truly believe in the mission of my agency...we rise by lifting others..”

“My time working alongside such an incredible team, who consistently aspire to do more in the community has been a tremendous driving force during my career. My knowledge and understanding of the bridge between social services and healthcare has truly prepared me as I transitioned from Executive Assistant to my current role as the Director of Health Services. Although I believe education plays a very important role, there is something to be said about being vested in what you do. I truly believe in the mission of my agency. I know what we do makes a difference in others' lives and in my community - that is why I will continue to work hard to ensure the success of our Health Center. One of my favorite quotes that I live by is 'we rise by lifting others.'”

KRISTI ZAYAS

DIRECTOR OF HEALTH SERVICES AT JEWISH RENASSAINCE FOUNDATION, INC.

Center for Health Education, Medicine & Dentistry (CHEMED)

CHEMED shared a peer success story with their entire Health Center team to recognize TrainUp Day. M. Dorfman (M.D.) joined CHEMED when the Health Center opened in 2008 as a Dental Data Entry Clerk. Her excellent work skills were noted and about three months later she was promoted to dental billing. M.D. worked in dental billing for two years and medical billing for one year. She was then offered a higher-level position as a Bookkeeper. While working as Bookkeeper, she received her Accounting degree. M.D. was then promoted to Senior Bookkeeper. After three years in the Bookkeeping Department, she was promoted to Comptroller. M.D. continues to constantly grow in her knowledge and skills by participating in training.

“I really appreciate the opportunity that CHEMED has given me. Every day coming to work provides a new chance to learn and grow. CHEMED has really proven that no matter the experience or where you start from there is always potential to move up the ladder.”

M. DORFMAN
COMPTROLLER AT CHEMED

Saint James Health, Inc.

“It felt good to be recognized by my peers...”

“In April of 2016, I started working as a Medical Assistant at Saint James Health. I wanted to work at a Federally Qualified Health Center because Health Centers are community oriented and patient focused. In March of 2018, I was promoted to a Case Manager. It felt good to be recognized by my peers and gain more responsibility. As a Case Manager, I connect both pediatric and adult patients to multiple social services, specialists, and even help them with their transportation needs. Each patient has a different story and makes a unique impact on my life. I feel lucky to be able to create a bond with our patients and help so many families.”

IVELISSE GONZALEZ

CASE MANAGER AT SAINT JAMES HEALTH, INC.

Saint James Health Inc. engaged in TrainUp Day by highlighting team member, Ivelisse Gonzalez, who climbed the professional ladder at the Health Center. Ivelisse’s story was shared with Health Center team members to inspire them to pursue professional growth within the organization.

Neighborhood Health Services

Neighborhood Health Services Corporation (NHSC) team members received TrainUp Day materials from NJPCA. NHSC serves Union County, providing a multitude of medical services ranging from Internal Medicine and Pediatrics to HIV/AIDS treatment and therapy, to more than 22,000 patients annually.

Osborn Family Health Center

Osborn Family Health Center distributed NJPCA giveaways to their Health Center staff to encourage career development and opportunity for growth within the Health Center.

Osborn Family Health Center was established in 1974 in a brownstone house on Haddon Avenue in the city of Camden. Since then, Osborn has grown immensely, due to the increased need for care of indigent patients, becoming an FQHC lookalike in 2018. Services currently offered include, Pediatrics, Family Practice, and OB/GYN.

Visiting Nurse Association of Central Jersey CHC

The Visiting Nurse Association of Central Jersey Community Health Center (VNACJ CHC) provides high quality, comprehensive medical care to Monmouth County residents. As a constantly growing organization, VNACJ CHC provides several services such as Nutritional Counseling, Behavioral Health, and most recently opening an LGBTQ Health Center.

VNACJ CHC distributed giveaways in their breakroom. The breakroom was decorated with the assistance of NJPCA team members.

NJPCA Reaches Potential Applicants at College Job Fairs

NJPCA continues to attend college and university job fairs across the state to educate potential applicants about the various careers that are available at a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC).

NJPCA met with over 100 potential applicants to discuss the various positions, skills and education required to apply for Community Health Center openings. NJPCA also highlighted the FQHC mission of providing quality healthcare to the underserved population.

In 2019, NJPCA is excited to continue recruitment at New Jersey college job fairs by spreading awareness about the various opportunities available.

NJPCA attended the following job fairs:

Mercer County Community College

Monmouth University

Montclair State University

Princeton University

Rider University

Rowan University

Stockton University

Kean University

Rutgers University -Newark, Camden, and New Brunswick
